

WELCOME TO THE FUTURE OF LEADERSHIP

Hire just the amount of leadership your company needs with Fractional Executive Women.

The Leadership Gap for Women in Business

- Despite progress, women remain underrepresented in senior leadership, holding just 25% of executive roles in S&P 500 companies.
- This gap affects individual career growth and limits diverse perspectives in decision-making at the top levels of business and the ability of business leadership to remain competitive.

It calls for New-Forward Thinking leaders

1. When striving for innovation and excellence, developing a diverse leadership team is crucial.
2. Your commitment to diversity is reflected in your corporate values, aiming to create a balanced representation at all levels of leadership.
3. Investing in female leaders not only drives equity but also enhances organizational performance and decision-making.
